+351 289 393 780

LBL_POA | Ref. 1052 | São Brás de Alportel

1	4	✖	389 m2	✖

A Precious Gem Property

This exquisite property from 1937, originally an olive oil mill, was renovated into a charming property maintaining the traditional features, enhancing the beautiful soul experienced by all who visit. Located in the wonderfully peaceful Mesquita hamlet of São Bras de Alportel. Currently used as a restaurant, the welcoming ambiance invites up to 80 covers and offers onsite cozy owner/staff accomodation.Eventually with possibility to convert into a stylish residence after application for habitation licence.

The spacious indoor part of the restaurant boasts high painted wood ceilings, feature sweeping arches from the oil press, white washed donkey bricks, traditionally thick walls and the polished Calçada floor. The exterior is every bit as endearing: stone framed doors and windows, rich antique roof tiles, iron and stone pieces from the oil mill are scattered around and nature provides