Renovated City Residence with Pool and Garden

This premier residential property with tropical garden, private pool and garage is whispering for its forever soul mate. Built in 1880 as the private headquarters of a prominent Algarve industrialist, this building has commanded its place at the heart of Faro's historic centre for nearly one hundred and fifty years.

At its core: a 7 en-suite main residence, a separate annexe with 2 suites and other rooms, a lush tropical garden and heated pool entirely hidden from the world, and a garage — all within a short stroll of Faro's marina and the animated streets of the Old Town - rare opportunity indeed.

Sensitively and completely restored in 2019, the property was opened as a successful boutique hotel. (For those looking for a commercial opportunity - the AL and business included). The origina
