Authentic Farmhouse

This property is certainly one of a kind; this was originally an old farmhouse on a wine farm from around 250 years ago, owned by a Portuguese family of the nearby town of Sao Bras de Alportel.

The authenticity of this Estate is obvious from the moment you turn into the cobblestone driveway to park under the huge old trees. The main house has a beautiful view over the valley towards Alportel. The entire Estate has been very cleverly renovated to the nowadays expected comfort while the ancient atmosphere was kept. Inside the minimalistic interior design accentuates the beauty of the rustic finishings. The property is currently an excellent and award winning luxury B&B but could be turned back into a residential property. North of the main house there is a cottage with 2 ensuite bedrooms and towards the west there are some original old stables also changed into luxurious ensuite bedrooms.
